STUDY PRESS RELEASE

Metropolitan School District of Wabash County is conducting a Study by interviewing students, staff, parents, and patrons of MSD of Wabash County. The first interviews will begin on August 13 and conclude on September 12. All six schools and three community buildings (LaFontaine, Roann, and Somerset) will host the interviews conducted by Dr. Steve Yager and Mr. Steve Vorick. Public presentations of the results will take place near the end of September and announced at a later date.

Each interview session will last approximately 30-45 minutes and consist of 6-12 participants. Those interested in participating in an interview should contact a secretary at any of our MSDWC schools or at the administration office. The interview will gather information about what you appreciate regarding our district and how we may become better in the future. Interview locations and times include:
